

Modern elegance for ceilings; the ceiling lights from the SCULPTORIS series can be used in a number of ways indoors thanks to different outputs, sizes and colour temperatures. The surface-mounted ceiling lights provide extensive illumination for rooms and also look great as wall lights.

The light is softly and extensively diffused through the large, circumferential diffuser with matt aluminium design and illuminates rooms pleasantly and evenly.

Special features

- Light colour adjustable in 2 stages
- Uniform illumination
- Circumferential diffuser
